STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

REVISION 3 — November 16, 2026

Arnold Defense & Electronics, LLC ("ADE" or "Seller") offers the goods described in its quotation ("Goods") to the customer ("Buyer") subject to the following terms.

1. Acceptance and Order of Precedence

Seller's quotation and these Standard Terms and Conditions of Sale (together, the "Agreement") constitute Seller's offer to sell the goods identified in the quotation ("Goods"). Seller's acceptance of any Buyer purchase order is expressly conditional upon Buyer's assent to this Agreement. Any additional or different terms in Buyer's purchase order, supplier portal, acknowledgment or other communication are rejected and shall not apply unless expressly accepted in a writing signed by an authorized representative of Seller. Seller's shipment or performance does not constitute acceptance of Buyer's terms. No order is binding on Seller until Seller issues a written order acknowledgment or commences performance. If an expressly agreed, signed transaction-specific writing conflicts with these terms, that writing controls solely to the extent of the conflict. Any mandatory requirements of applicable law remain applicable.

2. Payment Terms

Buyer shall pay in the currency, amounts and at the times stated in Seller's quotation or written order acknowledgment. Seller may require advance or progress payments based on its credit review. Undisputed amounts not paid when due may accrue interest at the lesser of 1% per month or the maximum lawful rate. After written notice of material nonpayment, Seller may suspend further performance until past-due amounts are paid and adequate payment assurance is received, with a reasonable adjustment of delivery schedules. Buyer shall not set off amounts against sums due except as required by law or expressly agreed in writing.

3. Price

Unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing, prices are those in Seller's quotation and exclude freight, insurance, duties, tariffs, and sales, use, excise or similar transaction taxes. Changes to quantity, specifications, delivery or applicable governmental charges may require a mutually agreed price adjustment before Seller proceeds with affected work.

4. Taxes and Exemption Documentation

Buyer shall pay applicable transaction taxes, duties, levies and similar charges arising from the sale, shipment or use of the Goods, excluding taxes on Seller's net income and property. Where Buyer claims an exemption, Buyer shall provide a valid, applicable exemption or resale certificate before invoicing or such earlier date as reasonably requested. Seller may charge tax unless adequate documentation is received; Seller will make corrections or refunds when required by applicable law.

5. Limited Warranty

Seller warrants that Goods manufactured by Seller will conform in material respects to the description and expressly agreed specifications in Seller's quotation for one (1) year from issuance of Seller's Certificate of Conformance or, for launchers with a documented shot count, twenty-five (25) shots per tube, whichever occurs first. Buyer shall promptly notify Seller in writing of an alleged defect within the applicable warranty period and provide reasonable supporting records, including shot-count records where relevant. Seller may inspect the Goods and, if Seller confirms a covered nonconformity, Seller's sole obligation and Buyer's exclusive contractual remedy is, at Seller's option, repair or replacement of the affected Goods. Returns require Seller's prior authorization and shall be shipped transportation prepaid, subject to applicable law and shipping authorization. This warranty does not cover normal wear, misuse, improper storage, unauthorized modification or repair, operation outside Seller's written instructions, or damage after risk of loss passes, to the extent such condition caused the claimed defect. EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS WARRANTY ABOVE, SELLER DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW. Nothing in this section excludes rights that cannot lawfully be excluded.

6. Quality Management System

Seller maintains a quality management system identified in its quotation or current quality documentation. Any customer-specific quality clauses, certifications, inspection rights, record-retention duties, audit requirements, special source restrictions or flowdowns apply only if expressly identified and accepted by Seller in writing. Seller does not accept additional quality obligations solely through Buyer's purchase order or incorporated online terms.

7. Limitation of Liability

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, SELLER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, LOST REVENUES OR LOSS OF USE, ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THE GOODS OR THIS AGREEMENT, REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, SELLER'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO A CLAIM SHALL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNT ACTUALLY PAID TO SELLER FOR THE PARTICULAR GOODS GIVING RISE TO THAT CLAIM. THESE LIMITATIONS DO NOT APPLY TO LIABILITY THAT CANNOT LAWFULLY BE LIMITED OR EXCLUDED. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE PRICE REFLECTS THIS ALLOCATION OF RISK.

8. Security Interest

To secure payment of the purchase price, Buyer grants Seller a purchase-money security interest, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in Goods sold but not paid for in full and identifiable proceeds thereof. Buyer shall reasonably cooperate with documentation necessary to perfect that interest where legally available. Seller's rights are subject to applicable secured-transactions law.

9. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Venue

This Agreement shall be governed by Missouri law, without regard to conflicts-of-law rules, except for mandatory law that cannot be excluded. Subject to applicable jurisdictional requirements, the parties consent to exclusive jurisdiction in the state courts located in St. Louis County, Missouri, or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, as applicable.

10. Buyer-Requested Delay

Any Buyer-requested deferral, rescheduling or hold requires Seller's written agreement. Unless otherwise agreed, Buyer remains responsible for amounts due under the original payment schedule and reasonable, documented storage, preservation, handling, rescheduling and related costs resulting from the agreed delay. Seller may require progress payments for work performed and noncancelable commitments. Revised delivery dates shall be confirmed in writing.

11. Delivery; Title; Risk of Loss

Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, delivery is EXW Seller's facility, Arnold, Missouri, USA (Incoterms® 2020). Risk of loss passes in accordance with that rule; title passes upon delivery at the named delivery point, subject to Seller's security interest and applicable law. Seller may make reasonable partial shipments and invoice for Goods shipped. Quoted delivery dates are estimates unless expressly designated as firm in Seller's written order acknowledgment. Buyer shall inspect promptly and provide written notice of apparent shipping shortages or damage, without limiting any express warranty rights.

12. Compliance with Laws

Each party shall comply with laws applicable to its own performance. Buyer is responsible for permits, licenses and approvals required for its receipt, importation, possession, use and subsequent transfer of the Goods, except to the extent Seller expressly undertakes a specific obligation in writing. No customer clause or government flowdown is incorporated merely by reference to a procurement system; applicable flowdowns must be identified and accepted in writing, without limiting independently applicable law.

13. Export Controls

The sale, shipment, transfer, reexport and use of Goods and related technical information are subject to applicable U.S. export-control and sanctions laws, including the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) and Export Administration Regulations (EAR), where applicable. Each party shall comply with laws applicable to its activities. Buyer shall not export, reexport, transfer, divert or otherwise dispose of Goods or controlled information contrary to applicable authorizations or restrictions, and shall provide reasonably requested end-use and end-user information. Seller has no obligation to perform an activity prohibited by law or lacking a required governmental authorization. If an authorization is denied, revoked, delayed or unavailable, the parties will confer in good faith concerning lawful alternatives; Seller may suspend affected performance or terminate the affected order by written notice if lawful performance cannot reasonably proceed. Upon termination, Seller may retain amounts properly attributable to completed work, noncancelable commitments and reasonable documented costs, subject to applicable law and any expressly agreed refund terms; any remaining prepaid balance shall be returned. Neither this Agreement nor a nondisclosure agreement constitutes export authorization.

14. Force Majeure

Seller shall not be liable for delay or failure to perform to the extent caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including natural disasters, war, terrorism, governmental actions, epidemics, labor disruptions, carrier interruptions, supply shortages or utility failures. Seller shall provide reasonable notice when practicable and use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate the impact. Affected delivery dates shall be equitably extended. If an event continues for a commercially unreasonable period, either party may request good-faith discussions regarding the affected order; payment obligations for Goods delivered and work already performed remain due.

15. Intellectual Property and Proprietary Information

All patents, drawings, designs, processes, know-how, technical data, trademarks, software and other intellectual property owned or developed by Seller or its licensors remain their property. No rights are transferred except a limited, nonexclusive right to use delivered Goods for their intended lawful purpose. Buyer shall not reproduce, disclose or use Seller-provided proprietary drawings or technical information except as expressly authorized in writing, and shall preserve existing proprietary legends. Buyer shall not reverse engineer Seller's proprietary designs or components except to the extent such restriction is prohibited by applicable law or expressly authorized by Seller. No clause grants Buyer ownership of Seller's preexisting or independently developed intellectual property.

16. Packing

Seller shall use its standard packaging or crates appropriate for its ordinary shipment practices. Special packaging, labeling, preservation, handling or transportation requirements apply only if expressly accepted in writing and may affect price and schedule.

17. Changes; Cancellation; Termination

Buyer may request changes or cancellation in writing, but no change or cancellation is effective without Seller's written agreement. Any agreed change shall address resulting price, schedule, materials, work-in-process and noncancelable commitments. If Seller agrees to cancellation for convenience, Buyer shall pay for Goods delivered, work performed, reasonable costs incurred and noncancelable commitments, less costs reasonably avoided, without duplication. Seller may terminate an affected order for Buyer's material breach remaining uncured thirty (30) days after written notice, or immediately where continued performance would be unlawful.

18. General Provisions; Severability; Survival

If a provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain effective to the extent permitted by law. Provisions intended by their nature to survive, including payment, liability limits, intellectual property, dispute resolution and accrued rights, survive completion or termination. Failure to enforce a provision is not a waiver. Neither party may assign its obligations without the other party's written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, except to a successor in connection with a sale of substantially all relevant business assets that assumes the obligations. This Agreement and expressly accepted transaction-specific documents constitute the entire agreement concerning the Goods and may be modified only by an authorized writing.
